Ship Crashes Into A Reef; 99 Aboard

SAN DIEGO, CALIF., August 9.—All passengers aboard the Pacific Mail Steamship San Jose, have been landed and an effort to get the vessel off San Pablo Reef by her own engines, according to a radio message received by the navy station here today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., August 9.—Wireless messages early today from the steamer San Jose, which struck on San Pablo Reef, about 1500 miles south of San Diego, last night, indicated the ship was resting easily. There were 33 passengers and 66 members of the crew on board.

One message from Captain E. Zastro said:

"Holding out OK, I guess." Previous radio messages had stated the ship was "taking a big hit," and was in immediate danger.

The vessel left Salinas Cruz, Mexico, August 1, and was due in San Francisco August 18, after stops at San Diego and Los Angeles. A radio message picked up from the steamer Griffin at 2:15 o'clock said she was asking for the assistance of the San Jose. The Griffin gave her position as about 300 miles away from the stranded ship.

"There is no panic aboard," said one of the San Jose's messages. "The passengers are treating the accident as an adventure."

Soda Fountain And Luxury Tax On Clothes To Be Eliminated

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Having agreed to elimination of the soda fountain, ice cream and so-called luxury taxes on wearing apparel and a fifty per cent cut in the levy on sporting goods, Republican members of the House today and means committee returned today to the job of revenue revision determined to make further reductions in the total tax the American people will be called upon to pay this fiscal year.

A fifty per cent cut in the transportation levies, both passenger and freight, was declared to be practically a certainty. Those members who heretofore have urged immediate repeal of all of these taxes were understood to be prepared to press their point with the argument that this could be done readily if repeal of the excess profits and higher surtaxes is delayed until next January 1, as now proposed.

The total loss of revenue involved in cutting off the transportation taxes was estimated at $200,000,000, or less. It was claimed, however, that the loss would be offset this year through making the repeal of the excess profits and higher income surtaxes retroactive to last January 1. It was also urged that the cutting off of the levies on freight and passenger traffic would prove of real help to business through savings in freight charges and lower expenses of traveling salesmen.

Formal agreement among the majority members as to the total that will be absolutely necessary to run the government this fiscal year has not yet been reached, and it was said that further specific tax cuts might await such an agreement. There also was talk of conferences with President Harding to obtain his advice in the solution of the major problems before the committee.

Having been excluded from participation in the framing of the bill, democratic members of the committee are giving independent study to the revision question. Representative Kitchin, the democratic leader, who is detained at his home in North Carolina by illness, had been kept fully informed on the public hearings and it is understood that his counsel will be sought in framing any report that the democratic party may make after they have studied the Republican draft of the measure.

Representative Garner of Texas, the ranking democrat on the ways and means committee in the absence of Mr. Kitchin, came out flatly today for full repeal of the transportation taxes and the so-called nuisance taxes, including the ten per cent tax on bottled soft drinks, and against any of the new or increased taxes suggested by Secretary Mellon.

RAIL BOARD ORDERS SECRET BALLOT ON PENNSYLVANIA

CHICAGO, August 9.—A secret ballot by the shop employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad to select a committee for negotiation of working agreements with the roads was directed by the United States Railroad Labor Board today, in supplementary ruling on the recent shop crafts' decision.

The decision, which ordered a new election of an employees committee and which cancelled agreements reached by the road with a committee elected by a general vote, previously directed that the name of the employee voted ing appear on the ballot.

The ballot today ordered that the conference directed by the original decision to be held on or before August 10 should arrange a plan for election to insure "the absolute secrecy of the ballot."

With but one day left to hold the conference under the board's order, Pennsylvania officials here said that no conference had yet been held, to their knowledge and further said that they knew of no arrangement for a conference today or tomorrow.

Reports in railroad circles said that the Pennsylvania was not expected to take any action to comply with the board's decision.

$100,000 IN JEWELS ARE STOLEN ON FAST TRAIN

CHICAGO, August 9.—A police investigation was under way today in connection with the disappearance of $100,000 worth of jewels while the Twentieth Century Limited, on the New York Central Railroad, was speeding toward Chicago yesterday.

Max Levy, Chicago wholesale jeweler, reported on his arrival here that a brief case containing the jewels had been taken from under his pillow in the Pullman car. He says one of the pillows had also been removed from under his head while he slept.

Levy said he did not retire until nearly two o'clock, having engaged in a game of cards Sunday night with several men, one of whom he said he had met while travelling before.

"When I got into my berth, I placed my brief case under two pillows," he told detectives. "My head rested on them. I fell asleep almost at once and slept soundly until just after six o'clock. The first thing I did when I opened my eyes was to slip my hand under the pillows. The brief was gone. Later I found one of the pillows had been taken from under my head."

Levy said he boarded the train for Chicago at Albany.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1921, By the Times Publishing Co.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—More than a month has passed since Congress by joint resolution tried to declare a state of peace with Germany but for reasons which have thus far been clouded in secrecy neither a proclamation of peace has been issued nor has the American public been told officially by the department of state or the White House what the American commissioner in Berlin and the German government are talking about.

The Senate foreign relations committee has not been given a draft of the memorandum now in the hands of the German government though it is known the German Reichstag committee has for weeks had the same under consideration.

It was in the senate that the Wilson administration met its Waterloo by failing to consult that body in the making of peace and Republican Senators have been wont to say that the policy of secret diplomacy was repudiated at the polls last November. That's why there is a growing impatience over the extreme secrecy of the present negotiations with Germany.

Even Hughes Keeps Mum

Secretary Hughes, who usually discusses foreign policy frankly and in much more detail than any of his predecessors, has declined repeatedly to say anything about the conversations or negotiations going on with the German government. The state department has, on the other hand, insisted that most of the published reports are seriously inaccurate.

The Wilson administration used to argue that international custom and international policies made it necessary to negotiate privately but the Harding administration is keeping the negotiations within the realm of secret diplomacy because of domestic politics—a fear of certain elements in the United States senate which might attempt to criticize the proposals of made public.

May Ask Senate to Signify It

Indeed the department of state gives every evidence of intending to follow the Wilson footsteps by negotiating a treaty with Germany and then sending it to the Senate which will be urged to accept it without qualifications. The chances are the Senate will have to take the treaty without the "an" "I." The Democrats aren't particularly disturbed over that prospect for they defended it under the Wilson administration but the elements in the Senate which denominated the Wilson methods as unjustified are showing signs of restiveness over the fact that open diplomacy has again gone by the boards.

May Bar Press From Conference

The chief fear is that Secretary Hughes is establishing a precedent for the Harding administration which will be used to keep the press out of the disarmament conference and give out (Continued on Page Eight)

Upon disposing of the anti-beer bill, the Senate immediately gave right of way to the Capper-Tencher bill prohibiting gambling in grain. This is expected to be disposed of before the end of the week. With these two measures out of the way, there is a prospect of the senate declaring a recess of four weeks or more unless President Harding, upon his return today from his vacation trip in the White Mountains, should request that the railroad debt funding bill be pressed to a vote. The funding bill will be taken up today by the senate interstate commerce committee.

The anti-beer bill as passed by the senate contained a number of amendments to the measure as received from the house. The most important included a provision to restrict operations of prohibition enforcement officers by prohibiting searches of private property without search warrants, and imposing a penalty thereon.

Little did Mrs. J. E. McRee think when it came her turn to take a week working at the little tea room which her suffrage association ran in Atlanta, Ga., that she was taking over the making of a $100,000 business. ## SUPREME COUNCIL TO RATIFY THE DECISION

PARIS, August 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Briand, of France, and Mr. Lloyd George, prime minister of England, have decided at a private meeting upon a compromise partition of Upper Silesia it was declared here today on good authority.

The compromise boundary line is understood to have been drawn approximately as follows:

Beginning west of Pless on the Vistula River and running west of Cleveitz, west of Tost and Gross-Strehlitz north to between Rosenberg and Kreuzburg, and thence to the frontier of Northern Upper Silesia.

PARIS, August 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The allied supreme council decided today not to send reinforcements for the allied troops in Upper Silesia.

When the question came up as to the sending of additional French troops as reinforcements the British and Italian delegations voted against such action.

This line, while by no means a straight one, approximately bisects the Silesian plebiscite area. The ratified agreement must be formally ratified by the supreme council and possibility of this action at the late afternoon session today was forecast.

It was upon the private settlement being reached, it is understood, that the council decided not to send reinforcements to Upper Silesia at present, the British and Italian delegations voting against the sending of French troops for this purpose, as France had desired. Sir Harold Stuart, the British Silesian commissioner and General Marins, the Italian commissioner, argued that if the council agreed immediately upon the boundary line it would not be necessary to send reinforcements, as they believed both Germany and Poland would accept the council's decision.

The conviction of General Lerond of Lerond of France, head of the commission, was that trouble might occur even if there were an immediate decision by the council and he urged the ordering of reinforcements as a precautionary measure.

The British and Italian viewpoint prevailed and the council decided against the sending of reinforcements for the time being. The new line is accepted in principle as more nearly representing the real meaning of the plebiscite vote than anything previously proposed. The division also splits the disputed district.

Ship Parley Breaks Up

Railroaders And Steelmen Will Clash This Evening

All attendance records will doubt be shattered at the Seventeenth street grounds this evening, when the Steel Plant and N. & W. teams look up in the first of the crucial series between these two clubs, with the pennant hanging on the outcome. The Industrial League, this year, has enjoyed wonderful patronage, for the race has been neck and neck most of the way, with anyone of three teams, namely, Excelsiors, Steel Plant and N. & W. having a chance for the flag. The Excelsiors practically lost out during the last three weeks of play, although there is an outside chance they may yet be in on the struggle.

They will be in the event the Steel Plant only breaks even in their six games and the N. & W. wins but one of their three games. This would give each team exactly the same percentage, 600. Stranger things than this have happened in baseball, although the odds are 10 to 1 that either the Steelmen or Railroaders win the consolation.

The game this evening will start at 6 o'clock, sharp, and will be in charge of Umpires Jack Hartlage and "Peggy" Moore. It is said that every N. & W. employee who can possibly do so will be out in full regalia, to root for Manager Goode and his band.

The Steel Plant rooters will be there in huge numbers, too, make no mistake about that, and they will make the welkin ring with their shouts for Manager Stuten and his gang. Neither Manager Goode nor Manager Stuten had fully decided upon a pitching choice for tonight's struggle. It will probably be Tavenner or Hunter for the Railroaders, while the boxman for the Steelmen may be Whitlatch, Rogers or Lucas. Anyway you look at it the game promises to be desperately contested, and will be worth a king's ransom to witness. If you want a seat of vantage, it will be absolutely necessary to be there early.

A daring attempt to effect a wholesale delivery at the county jail was foiled through the alertness of Deputy Sheriff Frank Bennett Monday afternoon when the officer, attracted by the unusual singing and chatter of the prisoners, made an examination of the interior of the jail which disclosed that three steel bars of the inner grating of a window on the second floor had been severed making an opening large enough to admit a man's body.

One bar in the outer grating was also found cut entirely off and another was partly cut.

The window chosen for the attempt is on the seventh street side of the building and those implicated had hung a shirt over the window to hide their work.

The five prisoners confined in the hostile serving sentences or awaiting action of the grand jury were promptly locked in their cells and an investigation started which resulted in the finding of an old butcher knife which had been converted into a saw and used in cutting the steel bars. Through the questioning of the prisoners one by one, the officers learned that Stacey Shinkle, Corlis Wilson, Harvey Manix, Chester Penix, Henry Hardin and John Turner were the conspirators in the plot and as a result these prisoners are in solitary confinement for a spell as extra punishment. All the six men except Hardin are in jail awaiting grand jury action on various charges and Deputy Bennett stated Tuesday that all except Shinkle and Wilson admitted the part they played in the attempt to get away.

The conspirators claimed that the butcher knife was brought into the jail by a negro prisoner but the officers doubted the story, declaring that the negro referred to was thoroughly searched when locked up, explaining that the only place he could have concealed the instrument was in his shoe. No other clue has as yet developed as to how the men came into possession of the instrument. Workmen were immediately summoned and the severed bars were welded together again.

Henry Hardin, the only one of the six men not awaiting the action of the grand jury is serving a sentence for illegal possession of liquor. Shinkle is awaiting trial for non-support and Wilson and Turner face larceny charges. Penix is charged with bigamy and Manix bound over from the New Boston court recently on a charge of Sodomy.

THIS WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Brings a Ray of Hope to Childless Women

Lowell, Mass.—"I had anemia from the time I was sixteen years old and was very irregular. If I did any house cleaning or washing I would faint and have to be put to bed, my husband thinking every minute was my last. After reading your text-book for women, I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and have never felt better than I have the last two years. I can work, eat, sleep, and feel as strong as can be. Doctors told me I could never have children. I was too weak—but after taking Vegetable Compound it strengthened me so I gave birth to an eight pound boy. I was well all the time, did all my work up to the last day, and had a natural birth. Everybody who knew me was surprised, and when they asked me what made me strong, I told them Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Use this testimonial at any time."—Mrs. ELIZABETH SMART, 142 W. Sixth St., Lowell, Mass.

This experience of Mrs. Smart is surely a strong recommendation for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is only one of a great many similar cases.

Courtney, it was learned today, left Portsmouth more than a year ago.

W. C. T. U. Will Stress Law Enforcement At Convention

Cuticura Toilet Trio

Satisfies every want of the most critical in cleansing, purifying and beautifying the skin and complexion. Nothing purer, sweeter or more effective for every-day toilet purposes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 8.—This year's convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which will be held here Aug. 18 to 23, marks a new era in the W. C. T. U. It is the first since prohibition went into effect, last year's having been skipped.

Four hundred national officers and middle western delegations leave Chicago by special train for the convention.

Prohibition enforcement will be stressed this year. World prohibition prospects will be reviewed on a larger scale. Other lines of woman's betterment will be developed as never before, it is announced.

The distinctive character of this, the 48th annual convention of the W. C. T. U., has been held in the title of the keynote speech of its president, Miss Anna Gordon of Evanston, Ill. It is, "The Expanding Program of Our New Crusade."

The meeting here will recall to older members of the W. C. T. U. that it was in San Francisco where the idea of the World's W. C. T. U. was born. While visiting Chinatown 35 years ago Miss Frances E. Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U., was so impressed with the sight of young Chinese girls brought there for immoral purposes, that she declared on the spot the mothers of the world must be organized to prevent that sort of thing.

The World's W. C. T. U., which developed from her resolve of that moment, numbers a million members today and is organized in nearly 40 countries. Its next convention will be held in Philadelphia a year from this fall.

Miss Gordon, who will preside at the convention here was with Miss Willard in her 125 to Chintown. She is vice-president of the World's W. C. T. U.

Members in the National W. C. T. U. is 500,000, national offices at Evanston, Ill., reports. A campaign has been on some time to raise it to a million, and this will be encouraged at the meeting here. Delegates will be told that a campaign to raise a million dollars has almost reached its goal.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That supplementary sections 6310-1 and 6310-2 of the General Code be enacted and sections 12614 and 12614-1 of the General Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6310-1. Every motor vehicle, except a commercial vehicle as hereinafter provided, or a motor cycle, driven upon the public highways of the state, during the period from one-half hour after sun set to one-half hour before sun rise, and whenever fog renders it impossible to see at least two hundred feet ahead of such motor vehicle, shall display, when running, at least two lighted lamps on the forward part of such vehicle, one on each side and approximately of equal candle power; and every motor cycle so operated shall display at least one light on the forward part thereof, which light or lights shall in clear weather be visible at least two hundred feet in the direction which such motor vehicle is proceeding. Every motor vehicle so operated shall display a red light from behind, and a white light shall be so arranged as to illuminate each and every part of the distinctive number borne upon a rear number plate.

The headlights required on any commercial motor vehicle of two tons carrying capacity or over, which is so governed, mechanically constructed or controlled that it cannot exceed a speed of fifteen miles per hour, shall be visible at least two hundred feet in the direction in which said vehicle is proceeding; such light shall be sufficient to reveal any person, vehicle, or substantial object on the road straight ahead for a distance of not less than one hundred feet, and shall comply in all other respects with the requirements of this section.

No headlights shall be used on any motor vehicle upon the highways except after the installation of a device to prevent glare, which device has been certified and approved by the state highway commissioner, in accordance with the provisions of section 6310-2 of the General Code, which device shall be applied and adjusted in accordance with the requirements of a certificate of approval to be issued by said state highway commissioner. No such certificate of approval of any device shall be issued by said state highway commissioner unless such device, by actual test, conducted under his direction, complies with the following requirements for lights:

Whenever there is not sufficient light within the limits of the traveled portion of the highway to make all vehicles, persons, or substantial objects clearly visible within a distance of at least two hundred feet, the forward lights which a motor vehicle, except commercial vehicles, as hereinafter provided, is required to display, shall, when the motor vehicle is in motion, throw sufficient light ahead to show any person, vehicle, or substantial object upon the roadway straight ahead of the motor vehicle for a distance of at least two hundred feet.

Any light thrown directly ahead or sideways shall be so arranged that no dazzling rays or beams of reflected light from it or from any reflector shall at any time be more than three and one-half feet above the ground on a level road a distance of seventy-five feet ahead of such vehicle, and such light shall be sufficient to enable the operator of the motor vehicle to see any person, vehicle, or substantial object upon the roadway or at the side of the road within ten feet of each side of the motor vehicle.

No lamp or light prescribed in this section shall be more than thirty-two candle power.

No spot light shall be used when another approaching vehicle is in sight, except when projecting its rays directly on the ground at a distance not exceeding fifty feet in front of the vehicles using such spot light to the right of the center of the highway.

Sec. 6310-2 The state highway commissioner may, after proper laboratory tests, approve certain devices for controlling the front lights on motor vehicles so that they shall comply with the provisions of this act, upon the payment of such fee as he may deem necessary to cover the actual cost of such tests, not to exceed the sum of fifty dollars, and may issue a certificate to the applicant securing the device, when properly applied, complies with the requirements of this act.

Sec. 12614. Whoever operates or drives a motor vehicle upon the public roads and highways without providing it with sufficient brakes to control it at all times and a suitable and adequate bell or other device for signalling shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars.

Be On The Safe Side Let The Violet Ray Lens Lead The Way

Lights so glaring that they blind the driver of an approaching car; lights so diffused that even nearby objects are not easily seen; lights of so direct a ray that the side of the road is left in utter darkness; such lights are plainly unsafe and yearly contribute their share to the toll of night accidents.

But the driver whose lights are equipped with Violet Ray Lenses experiences none of the usual discomforts or dangers after-dark driving. It is common knowledge to owners that the Violet Ray Lens throwing a strong bright ray of pure white light three hundred or more feet in advance of the car while at the same time keeping the light down on the road. It is this ability to direct the light onto the road that eliminates the glare annoyance and danger that every driver knows so well.

Better Light—More Of It

In addition to the anti-glare feature, the Violet Ray Lens possesses two other valuable features. Due to the violet tinge of the glass, the light simulates daylight itself. And the peculiar prismatic construction of the lens diffuses enough light to produce a "fringe" outside the main ray sufficient to illuminate the side of the road.

THE RIGHT LENS AT THE RIGHT PRICE.

The Violet Ray Lens satisfies the laws of safety and of road courtesy.

Young Attorney Wins Nomination

The latest returns from Saturday's primary gives G. E. Miller, a young attorney of Russell, Ky., the nomination for County Attorney on the Republican ticket of Greenup County.

Mr. Miller frequently visits Portsmouth and has several relatives here, being a nephew of Mrs. Owen Hopkins of 1636 Sixth street and a brother-in-law of A. P. Haight of the Times force.

Mr. Miller is a graduate of the department of law of the Kentucky State university at Lexington, started his practice shortly after his graduation at Russell. He served in the World War in France returning at its close to take up his profession again. He added to his business that of real estate dealing and when the campaign for county officers came on decided to try his fortunes in politics. He was opposed by J. E. Pollock of Greenup for the nomination.

Greenup county being strongly Republican there can be little doubt of his election in November.

Otway Wins Big Series

The Otway Black Sox beat the Rarden Champs to the tune of 3 to 1 in a field of mud Sunday.

Weaver of the Champs was wild and ineffective and was in several tight places while Bending was at his best with men on bases. The Sox played one of their best games. The Champs were shut out until the 9th inning, when Gordon muffed Sweeney's wicked drive and then lost the ball and the runner scored the only run the Champs got.

This settles the series with Rarden as the Sox won 2 out of 3 and are ready to meet all comers.

August Doll has returned from Milwaukee where he attended the National Convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters, which ended a four-day session, Friday.

It adjourned to meet in Chicago in 1922 when they will consider the insurance rate question again. Representatives from Ohio were fortunate in securing the convention at Columbus in 1924.

Reports showed that in the 38 years that the order has been active, they have written $165,000,000 worth of insurance, and have only paid out $35,000 in death benefits.

Six hundred delegates attended the meetings, and were entertained in a royal manner. All the old national officers were retained, and two additional trustees were elected, making ten in all.

Mr. Doll will make his report at the meeting of the local order of Foresters, on Wednesday evening at the Ben Hur hall.

McDERMOTT WANTS ANOTHER CHANCE

McDERMOTT, O., Aug. 9.—The McDermott and Waverly teams staged a ball game in Waverly Sunday that was a complete farce from start to finish. The game was played on a field that resembled a hog pond after a cloudburst. The infield was a veritable sea of mud and the water in the outfield was knee deep. The only reason in the world that the McDermott outfit played the game on such a field was to get their expenses to Waverly paid. The McDermott team is confident that they can easily defeat Waverly on a decent ball ground and the McDermott club is requesting a game to be played between the two teams at McDermott on next Sunday or as soon as possible.

Chief Distel received word last night from Huntington that a Cadillac car No. 14,880 had been stolen there and requesting local police to be on the lookout for the machine.

Auto Polo Has Many Thrills; You Will Enjoy This Feature Of the Lucasville Fair

Auto Polo will be one of the distinctive attractions during the County Fair at Lucasville this week. It is distinctive because it is the newest sport, which has been a natural evolution of automobilism, but only a dervish motorist will attempt the game because of the perils which accompany it. It is pony polo and football very strongly emphasized, for it is played at high speed with cars that are striped and turned to racing form. Turning turtle, skidding, throwing out the players in somersaults, are some of the antics of the cars, with the players always intent on following the ball over the big field, and driving it to their own goal, or away from the goal of the opposing team. Four players are in the game, two men to a team, one man piloting the car, and the other driving the ball—about twice the size of a croquet sphere—away from the goal of the opposing team. It is hard, fast work for the players, but it brings hair-raising thrills to the spectators.

Bowman Arrested; To Face Larceny Charge

Floyd Bowman, 24 years old, who was locked up at the city jail a few days ago, will be required to meet a charge of grand larceny as the result of an investigation which disclosed, the police say, that he broke into the apartments of a woman named Stella Ross at 1016 Chillicothe street, last Thursday and stole wearing apparel valued at $150 including a $75 silk dress.

A part of the stolen apparel, which was taken while the owner was attending the Pickett fair, was found Monday night in a grip at Bowman's room at 1341 Ludington street by the police, they claim. Bowman is also suspected of having participated in other burglaries in this city the past few weeks, being led to this conclusion by the finding of new silk shirts and other wearing apparel in his room.

ANNIVERSARY OF A HISTORIC EVENT

August 9th marks the passing of a year since the first automobile ever permitted to carry first class mail from coast to coast arrived in New York from San Francisco in the wonderful time of 4 days, 14 hours and 43 minutes.

The return of this date brings the event very much to mind because the motor car quality demonstrated so convincingly then, is needed today, to even a greater extent. That quality is reliability.

If reliability and endurance under severe strains was ever proven, it certainly was in August, 1920 when four Essex cars dashed across the continent, two eastbound from San Francisco to New York and two westbound from New York to San Francisco. In each car were pouches of first class U. S. mail and thus the automobile took its place as a history maker, along with the renowned Pony Express rider, the old Stage Coach, and the first overland steam train.

Essex mail car No. 1, east bound, made the unequalled time of 4 days, 14 hours and 43 minutes. Essex mail car No. 2, west bound reached San Francisco in 4 days, 19 hours and 17 minutes. East bound car No. 3 crossed in 4 days, 21 hours and 56 minutes and west bound car No. 4 in 5 days, 6 hours and 13 minutes. Cars 3 and 4 encountered severe storms in the west.

Each of the four cars beat the then existing records by many hours.

The H. S. Howe & Co. local Essex and Hudson dealers state that the experience gained in this grueling test has been of immense value to the factory and that Essex owners of today are profiting from that experience.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

him down. Now he gives me a cold shoulder. How can I win his friendship again?

It is all right to keep the first young man as a friend only if he understands that you care for him in that way. Be cool to the second young man and when he asks to call on you or to take you somewhere, refuse his request. In time he will realize that you do not like him. You had your chance with the third young man and turned it down. Now the only thing for you to do is to make the best of it and let him go.

Dear Dolly—Please give me a recipe for fruit punch.

A. A. Make a quart of strong tea, add juice of half-dozen lemons, four oranges and one cup sliced pineapple cut into pieces, syrup made of two pounds of sugar and enough water to dissolve before boiling, add enough water to suit taste. When ready to serve pour over large block of ice. This should make about one gallon. Grape juice may be used instead of tea, and maraschino cherries make a delicious addition.

Dear Dolly—Will you please give me a recipe for chocolate candy?

THANK YOU. Chocolate Candy—Two cups sugar, one cup brown sugar, three heaping tablespoons grated chocolate or cocoa, mix well and add two-thirds cup condensed milk, cook slowly until soft ball forms when tested in cold water. Remove from fire, add lump of butter and teaspoon vanilla, place in pan of cold water and beat with cream.

Dear Dolly—Will you please give me a recipe for chocolate pudding?

CHOCOLATE PUDDING—Heat one pint of milk in double boiler, add yolks of two eggs mixed with four tablespoons sugar, then three tablespoons of cornstarch mixed with cold milk, stir for a few minutes until thick; remove from fire, add pinch of salt and teaspoon of vanilla. Put in dessert dish, and cover with stiffly beaten whites of eggs sweetened. When cool, place in refrigerator to chill.

CHOCOLATE BREAD PUDDING—One pint fine bread crumbs, one pint of milk, mix and scald. Add yolks of three eggs two squares melted chocolate and sugar to sweeten to taste, one teaspoon vanilla and pinch of salt. Place in buttered pan to bake. When done cover with sweetened meringue made of beaten whites of eggs. Serve with cream.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl of nineteen and have been keeping company with a young gentleman. I think I care for him, but there is something which stands between us and makes it impossible for us to ever marry. Is it right for me to keep his friendship? There is another who is ten years my senior. He seems to take a liking to me and runs after me wherever I go. He is a perfect nuisance to me. How can I avoid him? I have also met a third fellow to whom I really took a liking, but was very foolish to turn

The Standard Optometrical examination is very rigid, and is prepared by the State Board of Examiners in Optometry. Several years of constant study are necessary as a preliminary to the practice of Optometry.

The work of an Optometrist comprises but two duties—the detection of a given error of vision and its correction. But if the Optometrist discovers (as he often does) a condition requiring surgical or medical attention, he may advise accordingly.

Being relatively a new profession, Optometry is naturally not appreciated by the public as it deserves to be. It is estimated that in the United States many millions of people are constantly in need of the services of an Optometrist. That is, this large number of people are deficient visually in a manner that should be rectified by an Optometrist. They possess errors of vision that should receive attention, and in at least half of the cases the person is not aware of his deficiency.

That indicates the value of Optometry to the public, as we are spending only of defects of vision that the Optometrist is competent to correct.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

THE TELL-TALE CAR

Mr. Hamlen hallooed to Cherry when he was ready to start and with a last promise to Beth to see her that evening without fail, Cherry skipped down to the waiting car.

The old merchant seemed intensely proud of having such a pretty and capable little person as chauffeur, and kept chuckling to himself happily as he watched Cherry manipulate the wheel as easily as she did her clasp-corn and lady customers.

They thundered out into the country and soon came to their destination. Here Cherry had a chance to rest and explore the most beautiful rose garden she had ever seen. Tea and cakes were served by Mr. Trevelyan himself, in the garden, and after that Mr. Hamlen sat and finished his business with that gentleman until five o'clock sounded from a silver-tongued clock within the house.

On the way back to Welburg Cherry drove more slowly. It was a gorgeous autumn day. The sky was crisp beautiful in its late afternoon colorings. She even stopped the car once or twice to gather some particularly handsome asters that grew by the roadside and then hurried on again.

They were still amble or two from Welburg when they came upon Ned's car, empty, standing to one side of the road.

Mr. Hamlen saw it first and drew Cherry's attention to it and wondered where its owner was.

Remembering Beth Wilkerson's words of a few hours before Cherry knew very well that no matter where he was Arline Bates was with her husband. Furthermore that this was proof positive that Ned felt some attachment for this old flame of his, despite his protests to the contrary. And that on a perfect afternoon, he CHILLICOTHE, Aug. 9.—The board of county commissioners, Monday, took up the consideration of the plans for the handling of the children's home question, now left with them by the retirement of the Ross County Children's Home Association, which made its full and final report on Saturday.

Early Monday morning Probate Judge Cutright appeared before the commissioners at the request of Miss Greve and Atkinson of the charities division of the state welfare department. He called the special attention of the commissioners to the "welfare board" that they will soon be authorized under a new law to appoint to look after the interests of these children.

Under the new law, the welfare board will be composed of two men and two women, all of Ross county, equally divided between the Republican and Democratic parties. The appointments are to be approved of by the state welfare department.

Judge Cutright also asked that the board members be persons with whom he can co-operate in every respect, and who would be congenial to him.

Lucasville Fair Opens Today; Will Be Big Success

Exhibits Will Be Best Ever; Spirited Races Are Assured; Record Crowds Looked For

The annual county fair at Lucasville was formally opened Tuesday morning and throughout the day there was much activity on the part of the fair managers, and a big force of assistants in getting the exhibits in the various departments in shape for the real opening of the big show Wednesday and continuing over Friday. For the first time in many years favorable weather is promised and no doubt thousands of visitors will be entertained by the association during the week.

Thursday is expected to be the banner day, as usual, in the way of attendance, and it is predicted that all records will be broken in that respect on the big day. Nothing is being left undone by the managers to handle the big throng anticipated by providing ample parking space for automobiles and other vehicles at the south end of the grounds and officers will patrol the grounds to guard against theft and accidents.

In addition to the interesting exhibits in all departments, including live stock, farm products, fruits, flowers, culinary, school, art and poultry, there promises to be spirited competition for the prizes in the food and pig club contests.

On the midway there will be a number of side shows and other amusements, including the always popular merry-go-round with the children, besides the management, at a big expense, has provided several big free attractions, including the thrilling auto polo games and airplane flights during which the aviator will perform daring feats in the air.

Then there is the racing program with three events each day, and judging from the mugs already entered, the speed events will be close and exciting. More than fifty fast starters are now at the track waiting the word of starter Dr. Joseph Lake to "go."

13 Horses Entered
H. H. Harslin, of this city, will be in charge of the speed events and he started Tuesday that, barring bad weather, there will be some real "hoss" races at the fair this week. The race course is in fine condition and the big grandstand is all in order to house the big throng, always eager to see banglows in action.

The 2:40 trot in which there are 13 horses entered and the 2:30 pace with seven horses marked up to start are the feature events of Wednesday's racing program which is given below:

Open Diplomacy Goes By Boards

formal statements similar to the colorful announcements made daily at Park while the real agreements and negotiations were kept secret and are still being handed to the public in peaceable fashion in books by those delegates who participated in the peace conference.

Trying to Pass the Buck

But as the mystery of the negotiations with Germany is unexplained it is no less of concern to capital hill than the reason why a peace proclamation isn't issued. Congress expected that peace would be established by joint resolution. The state department did not seem to think a proclamation was necessary, but some suggestion was made that war time legislation could be abrogated only by a proclamation. So the matter was referred to the department of justice where it has remained for several weeks. The speaker of the House of Representatives, with experience on the supreme bench of the United States being required to await an opinion from a few lawyers at the department of justice, is one that has given rise to all sorts of rumors and gossip. Mr. Hughes it is contended, knows whether a proclamation of peace is necessary. He knows all about the law in the case. The question was referred to the department of justice as a way out—it was hoped the responsibility for the issue of the proclamation could be placed on the department of justice and make it a domestic legal affair and not an infringement of the handling of foreign policy by the secretary of state.

Harding Tells 'Em Not to Hurry

But something has happened. Even the department of justice has taken its time and the general inference is that the president has told the department it needn't hurry the decision. Meanwhile the department of state is hopeful of an early conclusion of its negotiations with Germany and once an agreement with the Berlin government is reached it will be easier to take the position that the peace proclamation might as well be held up until after the separate peace treaty with Germany is signed by both parties.

CAR OF STONE KNOCKS BOY INTO RIVER, FALLS ON HIM; HE DROWNS

Ohio River Dam No. 32, which is in the process of construction near Vanceburg, was the scene of a tragedy Thursday, when Theodore Pollitt, 18 year old son of Bert Pollitt, was suddenly killed while at work.

The boy was standing on the edge of the river large at the dam when near of stone, which was being let down to the river from the quarry above, struck him, knocking him into the river and falling on top of him.

Workmen rushed to the scene, and soon hauled the car of stone to the barge, but no trace of the body of the boy was found. His father, who was working on the same job with the youthful victim, saw the wire cable break, which sent the loaded car on its destructive trip, but was powerless to aid his son. The Pollitt family live four miles below Vanceburg.

Repeated efforts were made at the dam to recover the boy's body, but it did not come to the surface until Saturday afternoon. It is thought that the wheel of the gasoline boat, on duty at the dam, stirred the water and brought the body up 400 feet below the scene of the accident.

Bert Pollitt was one of the first to catch sight of the body floating on the water. He grasped it and one of the most pathetic scenes in the history of Vanceburg was enacted, as he tried to revive life in his son.

NEGRO HELD TO THE GRAND JURY

Waiving his rights to examination, James C. Vanderhouse, 24, negro, from Atlanta, Ga., who was placed in the Vanceburg, Ky., jail on the charge of attempting to grab and molest Miss Carrie Haywood, 29, of Firebrick, Ky., was placed on a $5,000 bond, in default of payment of which he was taken to the Mayfield, Ky., county jail to await his trial before the grand jury at Vanceburg, on September 10.

Vanderhouse was taken to Mayfield by Deputy Sheriff Smith, Tuesday afternoon, for safe-keeping.

The hearing was held at Vanceburg Tuesday morning. Miss Haywood was not present, but was represented by her father, a prominent citizen of Firebrick.

The hearing was very quiet, and no one attempted to molest the negro, although there is considerable feeling against him by the young woman's friends.

Vanderhouse, according to Miss Haywood, attempted to grab her at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, when she went to an out-building of her home, on an errand.

CUPID WINS; WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN SKIFF ON THE OHIO

"Necessity is the mother of invention" and love will not be thwarted by mere laws made by unromantic state assemblies.

At least this is the attitude of a resourceful bride and groom, who were faced with a prospect of postponing their marriage over the week-end.

Miss Martha Devoss lives with her mother, Mrs. Lonella Devoss, at Rockville, a tiny village on the Ohio river below Buena Vista. On Saturday afternoon, she and James Furaier, farmer, of Sandy Springs, had gone to Vanceburg, Ky., and secured a marriage license. In the evening, they went to Buena Vista to get Rev. H. G. Carroll, of the Buena Vista Methodist circuit, and were going to take him back to Rockville with them, to officiate at the wedding ceremony.

Imagine the state of their feelings when he looked at their license, and merrily told them that they would have to wait until Monday, and then be married in Kentucky in compliance with the state law.

The groom is a resourceful man, and had all the plans made to take a blushing bride to his farm house on that very day, and was determined that his plans were not to be spoiled by laws.

With Dan Cupid as his advisor, he suddenly remembered that the Ohio river belonged to Kentucky. The wedding party proceeded to Rockville, and embarked in a skiff, and rowing out into the middle of the beautiful Ohio river, whose glimmers of romance had formerly been limited to canoe parties, the skiff was stopped and as it floated toward New Orleans the words "Love, Honor and Obedience" were said.

The bride was accompanied by her mother, and brother-in-law and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jarvis, who acted as witnesses to the unique wedding.

MAN GORED TO DEATH BY BULL

CHILLICOTHE, Aug. 9.—John Patton, an aged farmer of 78, of near Lynchburg, was gored to death by a bull Monday while in his pasture field. The body was not found until late last evening and only about half of it was left, as the hogs had eaten the body. The bull was still standing guard over the body when found and it required five men to chase the angry animal away.

Election Results At Ashland

ASHLAND, Ky., Aug. 9.—William H. Carp, on the face of complete unofficial returns, has defeated J. Frank Stewart for the Republican nomination for county judge. Mr. Carp's majority of 42, however, is so slight the official check up which will take place at the court house at Callettsburg, Wednesday or Thursday may change the final outcome.

While Mr. Stewart received 2,024, thirty-five precincts in the county, John Mock has a lead of 9 votes. Another close race that may not be definitely decided until the official count has been made is that for the nomination on the Republican ticket for representative in the state legislature between Dan Voss and Dr. E. L. Allen. In the unofficial returns Mr. Voss has a majority of 114. He received 1,184 votes to 2,070 for Dr. Allen.

John Mock has a lead of 9 votes, the smallest majority returned in the primary, in the race for county commissioner for the third district. His vote is 1,230, while that for G. W. Stewart is 1,321. Wait F. Worman received 580 votes.

James R. Lukin apparently has defeated William Caldwell for nomination for county commissioner for the first district. His lead over Mr. Caldwell was given at 106. Mr. Lukin was given 1,154, T. L. Ford, Sr., third man in the race polled 742 votes.

Results in the other races of the county today stand as follows: The fourth precinct, which was missing Sunday, now being added: Circuit court clerk—L. F. Arthur 2,330; Homer B. Rogers 1,005. County Attorney—Joe M. Spears, 1,931; R. C. Preston, 1,402; E. W. Fannin 658.

County clerk—H. W. Fisher, incumbent, 2,263; Frank Blair 1,351; Charles H. Wessell 754; Joel Cunningham 198. Sheriff—H. D. Clark, 2,032; Col. C. E. Horrocks 1,363. County tax commissioners—W. T. Thornbury 1,575; R. B. Payne 1,475; H. G. Cooksey 796.

County commissioner, second district—Wm. Hornbuckle 1,264; O. P. Murr 675; William Nicholson 651; Kelly Likens 376; A. P. Cole 167.

In 4 Trips Across America Essex 4 Times Breaks Record

Fastest Time Between New York and San Francisco Beaten by 12 Hours, 48 Minutes
New York - Chicago Record Also Falls

Four Essex touring cars, carrying the first United States transcontinental motor mails, between New York and San Francisco, have set the time records for their respective directions across the American continent. The distance each car travelled was 3347 miles.

The New York to Chicago automobile record was also beaten.

The fastest Essex time was made from San Francisco to New York in 4 days, 14 hours and 43 minutes, breaking the record by 12 hours, 48 minutes.

A Reliability Proof That Speaks for Every Essex

The average time for all four cars was 4 days, 21 hours. These records cover the actual time from the moment the cars were checked out of New York and San Francisco with U. S. Mail, until they checked in at their respective destinations on opposite sides of the continent.

The purpose of this Essex test was to prove its reliability, not merely with one car, but with four. The closeness of the respective transcontinental time for the four cars, proves the consistency of performance and endurance that characterizes all Essex cars. Every requirement of motor car performance was met a thousand times by these cars, in their cross continent run.

Consider that hundreds of cars have attempted to break the transcontinental record. You have rarely heard of these attempts for the failures have not been given circulation.

Yet isn't it a remarkable and convincing proof of Essex ability and endurance that the only four Essex cars that ever challenged for the coveted transcontinental record were in every case successful?

The foregoing announcement was published a year ago. It is republished today in celebration of the first anniversary of this memorable record, and because Essex position today remains unchanged and unchallenged. More than 50,000 owners know its endurance, service and quality.

Receipts 1,000; twenty cents for further developments in general conditions before taking a definite stand in the market. American car gained 1 1/4. Famous Players and Kelly Springfield ore, and Northern Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Peoples Gas 1/2 points. Mexican Petroleum was heavy, losing three-quarters while Colorado and Southern and Westinghouse Electric sagged 1/2 point. Completion of yesterday's work covering in demand sterling and more liberal supply of commercial bills, carried it down to 3 1/2 compared with 3 3/4 yesterday's highest. Transcontinental rails were also slumped.

The closing was heavy. Concentrated selling of various specialties upset the market the late dealings after an early interval of firmness on leadership of the railroads. Sales approximated 200,000 shares.

Wilhelm New Phil Boss

CINCINNATI, August 9.—Irving Wilhelm has been appointed manager of the Phillies for the rest of this season and will probably be retained for next year. Wild Bill Donovan is to have a meeting with President Baker in Philadelphia today, and it is practically certain that he will be relieved of the management. Wilhelm has been getting very good work out of his men and looks like a real leader. He first broke into the National League as a pitcher with Pittsburgh in 1902, and he was afterward with Boston and Brooklyn. He was scouting for the Phillies this year when President Baker became displeased with the way Donovan was handling the club and turned it over to Wilhelm.

Director.

B--Goldwyn presents "Earthbound," A Drama in 8 Acts.
 Two men built their lives on this creed: "No God--no Sin--no Future Life."

It flung one headlong into the future he scoffed at. It put the other on trial for his life.

"Then the murdered man came back from his world of shadows. Back to his wife and the woman who had invited him to sin."

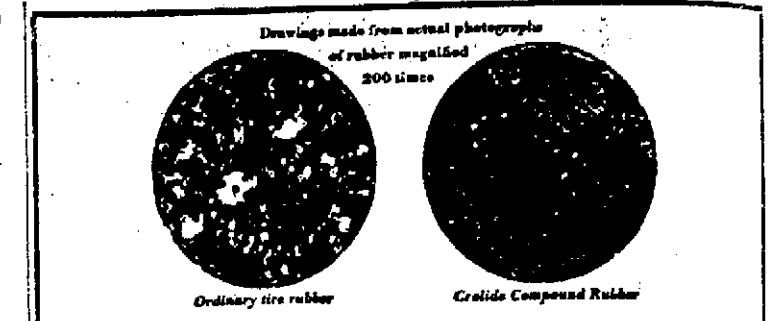

Passion still held him to the scenes of his transgression. Even in death he could not escape. He was earth-bound.

How far away are the dead? Is the spirit held to earth by its desires? Is there growth and progression--even after the shadowy barrier has been crossed?

Men and women everywhere, stirred by intense personal feeling, have been asking--"Does the personality change with death? How long do the old interests go on?"

How unseen "lumps" in rubber reduce mileage

LOOK at the two round photographs above. Each circle represents a sample of tire rubber as seen under the microscope. In the sample at the left notice the large white areas. These areas represent "lumps" of unevenly mixed substances. "Lumpy" formations of this kind, it has been found, are the unseen weakness of ordinary tires.

At last a rubber has been produced that reduces "lumpy" formations to a minimum—that eliminates premature tire troubles.

Experiments conducted by the Thermoid Rubber Company have resulted in the perfecting of Criloid—an even-texture rubber that does not weaken with the stretching and straining that goes on inside a tire.

Criloid Compound is today used exclusively in the manufacture of Thermoid Tires. Because of Criloid, it can be fairly stated that a Thermoid Tire is equal in wear to its oversize in any ordinary make.

You are invited to call and see these new tires for yourself—also the famous Criloid Compound Tubes.

Today—Postoffice vs. Standard Supply.
Tomorrow—Gilbert Grocery vs. Ohio State Life.
Thursday—Vulcan vs. Postoffice.
Friday—Retailers vs. Standard Supply.
Monday—Gilbert Grocery vs. Ohio State Life.
Tuesday—Postoffice vs. Retailers.

Vulcan Lasts stepped all around, through and over the Gilbert Grocery aggregation last night in York Park. The feature of the game was the consistency with which the Lusters lugged hit to short, whose wild peg home busted the old apple, scoring at will, apparently, and only turning in one goosewing inning as far as bibles go.

For five innings it looked as though the grocers were present merely to give the Vulcans a chance to do a little lasting, but in the sixth the supply men pushed over one for a feeler and in the seventh, emboldened by the attempt chased four over the pan. The final score stood 12 to 5 with the Lusters ahead.

The Grocers demonstrated their power in the first when the first two men filed out, the third singled and the fourth whiffed. The Vulcans then began demonstrating, Burton hitting over the parapet for two sacks just for a starter. O. Clausung went out second to first, but his brother singled to short and Correll tapped them the same place. On these three hits the Lusters checked up two to their credit.

For a moment the Gilberts looked dangerous in the second when Hopkins was safe on the shortstop's error. Gayheart hit to third and C. Malone walked. With one down, Blankmeyer forced Hopkins at the plate.

The score by innings:

BODY OF AUTO VICTIM TAKEN TO OAK HILL

IRONTON, Aug. 9.—John L. Jones, aged 32, a son of J. J. Jones of Oak Hill, Jackson county, met almost instant death about 9 o'clock Sunday night near Kelly's Bridge, this county, while driving to Ironton in an automobile in company with Dave Davis, Charles McGowan, Edward Metzler, Tom Morgan and Russell Poole, all of Oak Hill.

Something went wrong with the steering gear of the machine just as it approached a concrete embankment on a small stream near Kelly's Bridge and the machine collided with the embankment. Jones was thrown forward through the windshield and his throat was cut. The jugular and other large veins in his neck were severed and he bled to death in a very few minutes. The other occupants of the machine were badly shaken up but none of them were seriously injured.

The body will be taken to Oak Hill over the D. T. & I. today.

The victim of the accident was well known at Oak Hill, where his father is connected with one of the brick plants. He was a student of former principal T. A. Jenkins when the latter taught school in Jackson county.

The games in the Four Man Team Horseshoe Tournament showed some most surprising upsets last night. With the exception of the Iron Men and the Spring St. Specials, all the leaders lost heavily, while all the tail-end teams except the Quality Specials, won their sets, the Pioneer First who were the very last, ending with nine out of ten games.

Some very nice individual scores were made during the evening. Strader was high man with 60. Swickert was close behind with 58. Price made 63 and Dodge 61.

Cross continued to be the pace setter in ringers, making 23. Riggs was close behind with 22, while W. Sparks made 20. Dodge, Swickert and N. Kitchen made 17 each. McMan made 16, W. Clute 15 and Gerald 13.

On Courts Nos. 1 and 2, the League leaders, the Campbell Ave. Selects and the Iron Men fought it out for first place, and the scrap, resulted very much in favor of the Iron Men, who won seven out of the ten games. On Court No. 1 the Campbell Ave. Selects, 7, Sparks and W. Sparks, more than he'd their own, winning three out of five from Doll and W. Clute, by the scores of 12-21, 21-18, 21-14 and 18-21. But on Court No. 2 the Iron Men—Cook and Revare—won five straight from the Campbell Ave.

boys—Tilton and E. Davis—by the scores of 21-11, 21-16, 21-13 and 21-19.

On Courts 3 and 4, the Terminals Second split pretty evenly with the Spring Street Specials.

On Court 3, the Terminals players—White and Albrecht—winning four out of five from Prince and Turner, by the scores of 21-15, 19-21, 21-9, 21-18 and 21-9, but on Court 4, the Terminals boys—Tracy and Strong—dropped all five to the Spring St. Lads.

Mitchell and C. Davis, by the scores of 12-21, 6-21, 16-21 and 10-21.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Tuesday, Aug. 9—Steel Plant vs. N. & W.

Wednesday, Aug. 10—Selby vs. Steel Plant.

Thursday, Aug. 11—Central Labor vs. Selby.

Friday, Aug. 12—Steel Plant vs. N. & W.

Saturday, Aug. 13—To be arranged.

Widge Monk, pitching for the Central Labor Lads, last evening, at the seventeenth street yards, came within seconds of pitching a no-hit game, when his team walloped the Solvay Champions by the score of 7 to 1. Monk, who was out in the seventh frame when "Doc" Baughman, who has been alternating at Boston for the past several weeks eating cod-fish and baked beans, hit a tantalizing little home-run back blue that Champ Cooper barely reached and could not field in time. This, of course, robbed Monk of the honor of twirling a no-hit game, and while "Doc" was sorry, there was no chance to take the hit away from him. In all Monk pitched but 77 balls, and not a ball was hit to the outfield. The other gardeners did not have a chance during the entire game, while the infield had in all 10 chances. Better playing than was pulled off by every member of the Herder Hev'd infield has never been witnessed at the seventeenth street grounds. Grimm, Monk and Cooper are up everything that came their way, spilling many a promising hit into a putout. Monk (Widge) was a little unsteady at times, and through walking a man and hitting another, the Solvays were helped to a run.

The crowd was rooting for a man for Monk to turn in a record game, and to many it looked as though H. Hengen had been struck out for the third time when he took his place to bat in the seventh frame. But Umpire Hartman, who performed behind the bat, ruled otherwise and of course what Jack said went. Had Hengen gone out, Monk's ambition would have been realized. Baughman hurled for the Champs and he was hit with considerable force, especially by Harry Dunham, who got two out of three, and who drove in four of the seven runs. Grimm drove in two others while one scored on a wild pitch. "Doc" has been out of the game for a month and could not control his fast ball as in former days. At that he got out in many a tight hole and had his support been perfect would have held the Labor lads to a much smaller score. By winning last night, the Herder Hev'd are out of all danger of being the cellar chumps.

The big game—one of 'em at least—will be pulled off this evening when the Steel Plant meets the N. & W. It is said that Ches Lucas will pitch for the Steelmen, while Tavernier will perform for the Railroaders. President Conroy is considering plans of starting the game a little earlier, but this evening's game will start at 6 o'clock as usual and if a change in the time is made, the fans will be notified through the press. If you want a seat come early this evening—its gain to be some battle, but some scrap. The following gives an account of last evening's game, play by play:

TAX REVISION UPWARD

WHEN the Republicans went into power they were sure they would cut down taxes, that they would give the people "relief."

The relief the public may get includes a revision upwards of first class postage from two cents to three cents and a stamp tax on bank checks. If there has been any suggestion of really cutting taxation it has seemingly been given mighty little encouragement, except in respect to the excess profits tax.

If the Republicans can find a more equitable method of taxing, so that the burden will fall equitably upon all shoulders, they will not be so strenuously criticized as otherwise they will be, but even more equitable distribution is not the same thing as reduction. "Tax revision" has a fine sound, but the public wants to be sure of which direction the revision is taking.

The road leads upward as well as downward and the Republican leaders have given little indication that the downward road will be followed far enough in some tax ideas to overcome the upward travel in some other tax plans. Appearance is that when the public gets its "relief" it will be able to tell the difference between what is now and what will be then chiefly by the increased demand on the pocketbook.

AMERICANISM AND LAWLESSNESS

NOTHING recommends the American Legion more highly to the respect and confidence of the people of the United States than the manner in which the society disciplines those of its members who, acting in the name of the Legion, show contempt for law and order. The national organ of the veterans reports the case of a post which has been suspended from membership because a committee representing it gave a horsewhipping to the editor of a newspaper for publishing an article which the post members considered objectionable.

The nature of the offending article is not disclosed. It is pretty safe to assume that it was of a highly provocative character, since it induced the organization of ex-service men in the town in which it was published to take such drastic action. But provocation is not accepted by the Legion as an excuse for the lawlessness shown. The avowed purpose of the Legion is to promote 100 per cent Americanism. Now red-blooded patriots are always strongly tempted to whip or drive out of the community or apply tar and feathers to those who insult the flag, or sneer at our soldiers, or seek to destroy the government. But a few moments of reflection will show every reasonable person that Americanism is not to be inculcated by ignoring the requirements of law and order.

There is no consistency in assailing those who would overthrow the government and at the same time showing contempt for the government by violating its laws.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

IF a man cannot recover his job can he recover for his job? In Chattanooga a former employe of the Southern Railway is suing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, asking $5,000 damages because, he alleges, at the instance of the union he was discharged on account of being a non-union laborer, lost his remuneration and suffered other and attendant losses by reason of being "fired." Two important points—new in the courts of Tennessee and probably many other states—are to be settled by this suit: Whether a non-union man discharged at the instance of the union has any rights of recourse at law and whether a union, such as the Brotherhood against which this former railroad employe has lodged formal legal complaint, may be sued for monetary damages in such circumstances.

If it is decided that the corporate union is on the same footing as any other corporation, then if this non-union man shows that he lost his means of earning a livelihood from the railroad mentioned through no failure on his own part to do his duty, but solely at the instance and insistence of the labor union why should he not ask the courts to force this union to make good to him such loss as he may have suffered? The union cannot consistently place the burden upon the railroad company, because, according to the allegations, the union demanded the discharge of the non-union worker, threatened to strike and actually refused to work for the company if he were not discharged.

Rights and liabilities go together. This case is the case of the rights of a free workman against the liability of a legally incorporated organization of other workmen.

Apropos of the fact that it is said twenty-five million people are starving in Russia and the Soviet government is getting ready for another war on Poland, the Marion Star scores a point in the observation that a government that has money for fighting ought to have money for feeding. Anywise people who submit to that sort of government ought to starve to death.

Signs multiply that the administration really believes the situation can be cured by faith and by faith alone.

There may be something in this sand house talk about Henry Ford going to establish his railway terminals in Portsmouth. Anywhere there is this much in it: Portsmouth would be mighty glad to have him and he would be glad to come. Then there is this other thing: In proportion to area and population Henry would see more Hoofin' Nannies here than anywhere else on earth.

If opportunity walked right in without knocking, even then a lot of men would be out.

Every dog has his day, but that is not why the dog days come around at this time of year.

POLLY AND HER PALS

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The gaunt spectre of the winter that is to come hangs like a pall over the highway of light and laughter—Broadway. Living by one's wits is becoming a glorified art in the dying rattle daze of hectic nights and somnolent days. The Salamanders begin stalking early. Whereas they used to rise at 4:00 p. m. they now rise at noon.

It requires ingenuity to be on the velvet side of a dinner check these days. Gone are those luncheon hours when Wall Street brokers left the tickers in mid-afternoon to bowl up-town in limousines and forget the savage warfare of the money markets.

Cocktail at Shanley's, more at the Astor and then on, bers, to the Claridge grill where the Broadway gaiety centered, sizzled and frothed. Now the bars are neckle shops and the grills are havens for the candy profiteers.

Shy maids no longer skip a dance to gallop over to Fifth Avenue with a pick-up friend and indulge in a half hour of reckless spending in gown, imitation pearl and millinery shops. "The Dahlman Kid" is seeking new conquests on the Parisian boulevards at the tenth quart he was always good for a fur coat.

Broadway has its pink coral ear to the rail for the rumble of a spender but the collective noise from one week's end to another wouldn't equal the collective boom of three puny petals buried into the Grand Canyon's ravine chasms.

The other evening a flock of corymbs heard of a party in a private apartment. They slapped on the ronge and flew with winged feet to the scene. One was a fast worker. "I've got to have $50 by midnight or my trunk gets the air," she announced.

In a quivering voice. A spendthrift shucked off the amount from a roll. As the evening wore on he wandered aimlessly to the kitchen. A girl was at the telephone with her back to him. He heard her say: "Yes, Al, I've just licked a hood for $5 bucks. I'll meet you in 20 minutes." She turned and faced the "hood." He grabbed her purse, extracted the money, turned and walked out of the house. Such is the thrift of Broadway in these days of coy and reluctant dollars.

Lord Northcliffe makes almost as much good copy for reporters when he comes to town as does Charlie Chaplin. He visited film studios, went to Coney, did the theatres and explored the Bowery and Chinatown. He appreciates newspaper publicity and would do anything the reporters suggested as long as it did not interfere seriously with his lordly dignity. It is said that two reporters who trailed after Northcliffe were offered jobs and in the Fall will transfer their activities from Park Row to Fleet Street. He is incidentally a great moving picture fan and has a private projection room in his London home.

Just as the Castle Clip was dring out, Marilyn Miller, whose twinkling toes proclaimed her new stardom, slightly, has shown her locks—and the bobbed head craze is given a new impetus. I have become converted to the idea. It seems to me a sensible fad but I'm ready to join a movement at any time for the total obliteration of the two percent mistakes that our young blades wear. No jurisdiction can be put forward for their existence. Too fragile to strain soup and not robust enough to house a self respecting flea.

Caruso Also

When a man is famous, rich and powerful because of his talent or gift for doing something better than his fellows, we incline to think of him as favored by the gods of chance, or lucky in the sense of having special opportunities thrust upon him.

Of Caruso we have thought: "Oh, he had it in his throat, that's all." But when Caruso living becomes Caruso dead, we turn back to his beginnings and find him singing in church choirs for ten pence a week and wanting to be a sailor; singing at church festivals and private houses and often hungry. We find him a failure at his debut in opera at Naples when he was 22, and undertaking later—three long, hard years later—at Milan the role of Marcello in "La Boheme," sure he would fail again. But his first success came. Five years later, after chilling experiences in South America he came to New York, whose musical critics were not impressed by his voice.

Strange facts these about the darling of opera whose voice later brought him from $3,000 to $10,000 in a single night, and whose income rose to half a million dollars a year.

So, even such a divinely gifted, "golden voiced" favorite of fortune as Caruso may linger, poverty, failure and humiliation before success came to him after years of struggle. So success has come to most men—at the end of a long, long way to Tipperary. Those who are still on that long way to go may take heart from Caruso's early career. The old adage had it right, "there is no excellence without great labor." And early failures sweeten later successes.

Taxing Automobiles

All taxation, to be fair, must be on values. It may be that such taxation is not possible in many cases. But any tax which pinches the poor man for a specified possession of small value, the same amount levied against the rich man for a similar possession of large value, is inherently unjust and unfair to the poor man.

The Secretary of the Treasury advocates a flat license tax of $10 on all automobiles, "irrespective of cost or horsepower." That means that the owner of the little $500 truck must pay as large a tax on it as the owner of the big powerful $5,000 truck pays on that—that the $1,000 pleasure car owner is taxed as much for it as the wealthy owner of his luxurious limousine worth thousands.

It is not taxation itself that excites resentment in the masses of the people; it is unfair taxation. The man with the tin Lizzie may cheerfully pay $10 on his car worth from $500 to $1,000 if the man with the $2,000 car pays three times as much. But it is always had policy to take as much for taxes from the man worth only a thousand dollars as from the man worth a hundred thousand or a million.

Another thing will occur to all vehicle owners. If the automobile owner must pay a Federal license tax on it, why not the owner of the carriage, the wagon, and other horse drawn vehicles? The proposed automobile tax is plainly vehicular. Why not, then, include all vehicles used either for business or for pleasure? Is it because it would tax the farmer, who looks with complacency on the taxes of city men, but frowns politically on all Federal laws which do not exempt him from taxation?

Ears To Be Revealed

It is reassuring to learn that the National Hairdressers' Association has decreed that the ears of women shall once again come into the open, and no longer be hidden under waves of hair. A woman's ears, like a man's may be unsightly. Hidden, they are not considered. In full view, like the nose or the chin, they may make or mar a picture. If the hairdressers have their way, Miss and Madame must face the world with ears visible and subject to criticism. Those whose ears are comely will be quickest to discard the hair camouflage. We reserve comment on those who continue to veil them.

Presidents come and Presidents go, but Washington and Lincoln alone have enduring fame at home and abroad. As time passes they loom higher and higher on the distant horizon, while all the others sink to the common level of distinction.

Q. How did the term "midshipman" as applied to men at the Naval Academy originate?—C. R. O.

A. The title originated in the British Navy more than 200 years ago when the "young gentlemen" who were under instruction on those vessels for the purpose of becoming officers, were given quarters amidships, about the mainmast on the lower deck.

Q. How many enlisted men have applied for discharge under the present reduction of the Army?—C. E. B.

A. About 25 per cent of the enlisted men have applied for discharge, this amounting to approximately 55,000.

Q. What is a manitou?—C. N.

A. This is an Algonquin word used to designate a particular religious concept of the Algonquin-speaking Indian tribes around the Great Lakes. They believe in a cosmic mysterious property which pervades everything. They personify this element in various manlike gods spoken of as manitous.

Q. Who was known as the Man Miller?—L. G. U.

A. This was a nickname given to the French monarch Henry III on account of his efficiency and fondness for dress.

Q. What should minks be fed?—S. Y.

A. Minks thrive on the same diet as cats. Although naturally carnivorous, they readily learn to like an inexpensive much made of wheat bread, corn bread, cooked oatmeal, boiled rice, or mashed potatoes, mixed with a small portion of chopped or ground meat, and softened with sweet milk or meat broth. Do not offer the same combination more than twice in succession. Fresh meat is always in order. Adults require about 4 ounces of clean meat, or the equivalent, daily.

Q. Was there more than one king named Milus?—C. E. H.

A. Milus was a common name of the more ancient Phrygian kings. The Milus of the Golden Touch legend being the most famous.

Q. How many kings have there been in the world?—D. O. D.

A. There are no actual statistics on this but Armstrong's Synopsis of Facts and Figures, 1891, says that there have been known to be 75 kings and emperors ruling over 75 different peoples. Of these 300 were deposed, 64 were forced to abdicate, 28 committed suicide, 23 became insane, 100 were killed in battle, 122 were executed by the enemy, 2 were tortured to death, 151 were assassinated, and 108 were executed.

Q. Why did the Egyptians mummify their dead?—C. S. S.

A. The Egyptians believed that after the soul departed from the body it was judged in the Hall of Double Truth before Osiris, the judge of the dead. After it had undergone all its transformations it would return and again enter the body in the tomb. If again the heart was destroyed, it would not be possible for the dead to enjoy life in the world to come.

Q. How many cedar shavings or mothballs should be put in a trunk to keep out moths?—M. O. D.

A. About two quarts of cedar shavings or two pounds of mothballs are required in an ordinary-sized trunk or small closet, to keep out moths, etc.

Q. When are bedsteads and cold frames used?—K. J. C.

A. A bed heated from the bottom by means of pipes heated by fermenting organic matter is used for seed germination and plant growing. It is used for short season vegetables and for starting garden crops in order to have them mature early. An unheated frame is used to carry half-hardy plants over winter for planting the next spring or when only slight protection is needed.

DOG KOKO'S KOLUM

Tea-Party Make-Believe

By Elizabeth Thornton Turner
She gives tea-party make-believe
Just any time she pleases
Beneath the old oak's bending boughs
Where she can catch the breezes.

Her table cloth is made of leaves.
Her dishes are wee roses.
And all the fragrant food she serves
Is borrowed from the posies.

When every one has had enough,
She gives the cloth a flutter
And flings away her "flower" bread
And dandelion butter.

Then hurries off to skip and play
And do the things she wishes;
She merely has to make believe
That she has washed the dishes.

Some Temperament

Abe Erlanger, wise in his years, used to say that he never saw "any prima donna get temperamental with a policeman." But during the theatrical rehearsals it becomes static.

The contagion of temperament reaches even the stage carpenters, and they tell of one who suddenly threw down his hammer with: "I drive the best nail in town, but nobody appreciates me."

Doesn't Mean Us

"Would you care to make a few remarks before we spring the trap?" asked the sympathetic sheriff.

"No," replied the condemned man. "I may have my faults, otherwise I wouldn't be here, but trapdoor execution always did offend my idea of the fitness of things. Besides, a number of newspaper men are present. They would certainly take down anything I said if they got it wrong after the ceremony I wouldn't be in a position to claim that I was misquoted."

He Didn't Need One

The fussy stenog had looked at her watch a number of times one morning. "I have a date for lunch and don't want to miss it," she explained to the office boy when she found him watching her curiously.

"Huh!" replied that youth scornfully. "I don't need no watch to know when its lunch time. I got a belt. I have."

Tit For Tat

"What?" exclaimed the motorist, who had run over a farmer's toe. "You want $500 for a crushed foot? Nonsense! I'm no millionaire."

"Perhaps not," cried the suffering farmer; "and I'm no centipede, either."

Help Wanted

A motorist came upon another whose machine had broken down on the road. In the disabled car sat a woman. "Need any assistance?" inquired the new-comer courteously.

The other man lifted his flushed and grimy face from under the hood. "Yes," he replied, "I wish you'd answer my wife's questions while I'm fixing this infernal engine."—Boston Transcript.

Her Plan Failed

The other night a young man was visiting his best girl, and he stayed on and on until she became very sleepy indeed. Also she had to work the next day and thought it time to give him a hint that it was time for him to go home. Finally she said:

"Don't you think you had better telephone for a taxi to go home in? It's so late now and there have been several robberies out in this part of town after midnight."

The young man was visibly pleased at her suggestion.

"Oh, yes, please do," he returned. "I'm not afraid, but the taxi will take me home so much faster than I can walk and I can stay at least an hour longer."

Meeting Postponed

BY CLIFF STERRETT

This is Primary Day and an extremely light vote is being polled. It was estimated at 2 o'clock that the Democratic vote would not average 10 votes to a precinct, due to the fact that the candidates have no opposition.

The Republican vote will also be very light as very few women are voting.

Up to 12:30 today only one vote had been cast in Precinct H of the Sixth ward, which includes part of Mahet Road.

Precinct A of the Second ward had 46 votes recorded at 1:30, 12 being women.

Precinct E of the First ward, had 33, 5 being women. Precinct C of the Second ward had 45 at 1:30. This is Judge Purdum's own precinct and he stated he was confident that he would carry it.

A CLOSE CALL

IRONTON, Aug. 9.—An accident in which seven people very narrowly escaped death by drowning occurred on the Ironton-Bussell ferry boat Sunday. A West Virginia Buick car of an old model and occupied by a man, two women and four children, drove down the Russell grade and onto the ferry boat. In crossing the ferry boat, the man who was driving the machine either mistook the accelerator for the brake or the brake refused to work as he started. At any rate the car kept going across the deck of the ferry boat and the front end of it plunged under the steel bar on the outside of the boat being caught by the front of the car under the windshield. The front wheels of the car cleared the boat and it is understood that it was necessary to drop the boat near the Union Iron and Steel Furnace where there is deep water near shore before it could be taken off the boat. Had it not been for the bar it is likely that the occupants of the car would have been drowned.
